

Chiragn Temple (First Methodist)

located in the heart of the Loop is the world's tallest church. Its congregations have worshipped on this site for 108 years. The spire, floodlighted at night, is one of Chicago's most inspiring sights. The chimes are heard throughout the downtown area. Two thousand worshippers can be accommodated in the sanctuary and additional rooms. The organ is considered one of the largest and best in the country. Visitors from an average of thirty states worship here every Sunday. The church is open daily for meditation and prayer. Dr. Charles Ray Goff is the pastor. Sunday Services: 11:00 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.
